Top 10 School Rules

1. Always be respectful to everyone in class including teachers, fellow students and yourself. Remember your manners!
2. Always perform to your fullest potential in class. Laziness is a hindrance to martial arts. Students will not promote until a better attitude is shown.
3. Late students must perform 10 push-ups, 10 sit-ups and 10 jumping-jacks before being allowed into class.
4. No horseplay is allowed at the dojo. This includes the training area, lobby, and outside in front of the school. Instructor may require you to do push-ups.
5. If you come in without a belt or not in proper uniform (see student guidelines), you will be required to do 15 push-ups and 15 sit-ups before coming into class and you will line up in the back regardless of rank.
6. Every student will be required to take a test with Renshi Michael Bunton before promoting to the next belt rank
7. If you come to class early, you can sit on the wall or wait in the waiting area. If an instructor sees you not waiting with good manners, they may require you to do push-ups.
8. Anytime an instructor is speaking to the group you are asked to show them respect by listening patiently. This means facing them at attention and not moving any equipment you may be holding.
9. Anytime you enter or leave the dojo training area (blue mat) you must show respect. If an instructor catches you not showing respect you will be asked to do 10 push-ups.
10. At orange belt, you must be able to tie your own belt.

COMMUNICATION WITH PARENTS/STUDENTS

- It is disrespectful for students to ask the instructors when they will be promoted.

- It is disrespectful to question another student's rank.
- If classes are continually missed, more hours will be expected for promotion.
- Students must show a good attitude and practice respect procedures at all times or they will not move forward in rank.
- All promotions are at the head instructor's discretion.
- For all junior level belt promotions, a Permission to Promote form must be signed and turned in prior to belt testing.
